Terms and Conditions of Sale

By submitting bids in this auction, whether by telephone, fax, Internet, email, mail or any other method, you agree to the Terms and Conditions of Sale as follows:

1. This is an Absentee Auction. There is an online catalog with color pictures. There is a printed version available, however it has black and white pictures.

2. Bid Closing Time: The auction bidding officially ends Tuesday February 28th, 2012 at 10 PM Eastern Time.

10 minutes before the end of the auction, when you refresh your bid page, a timer will appear next to each lot. This timer will indicate how much time is left to bid on each individual lot. When a bid is placed on a lot, the timer is reset to 10 minutes. When the 10 minutes has passed and no bid has been placed, that lot will sell to the highest bidder.

If using the Internet, you MUST REFRESH your bid page to see bid amounts and the timers change.

(Or call us at 904-825-1723 if you are not using the Internet).

3. Bidding Process: Bidders are solely responsible for their own bids. Bidding mistakes may be resolved prior to auction closing. If you have any questions regarding the online bidding process, please contact us.

4. It is the bidder's responsibility to submit bids before auction closing. If you are submitting bids by phone, fax, mail or email, it is your responsibility to do so in a timely manner. We have the right to refuse last minute bids, based on time constraints. Last minute bid requests may result in non-entry.

5. Bid Increments: Bids must be submitted in the appropriate increments as outlined below. Online bidding may be no lower than the minimum bid. Any bids lower than the minimum bid will be rejected automatically. If you have any questions about an appropriate bid amount please contact us. The bidding increments are as follows:

Current Bid	Increment	Current Bid	Increment
Under $10	$1	$10 - $39	$2
$40 - $99	$5	$100 - $249	$10
$250 - $499	$25	$500 - $999	$50
$1,000 - $4,999	$100	$5,000 - $9,999	$250
$10,000 and up	$500

6. Actual Bid vs. Up To Bid Processing: For every lot you will be presented with 2 bid boxes. Bids entered in the box marked 'Actual $ Bid' will be posted immediately at the actual amount bid. Bids entered in the box marked 'Up To Bid' will be competitively bid against all Actual and Up To bids using the increments in the table above. As a bidder, this is your choice on each lot. In the event of a tie, the first Up To bid or Actual bid amount will be honored.

7. Buyer Premium: There will be a 10% buyer premium added to each lot.

8. Grading and Condition: We have made our best effort to describe condition accurately. We do not use number grading so please review the details in the description of condition and the photos. Please call us if you require a more specific condition report.

9. Return Policy: Your satisfaction is guaranteed. You may return any piece within one week of receipt of item(s); the full purchase price including buyer premium will be refunded. When we receive your bids we will assume you have read the description in the catalog and have contacted us regarding any questions you may have on any lot. Please call us if you require a more specific condition report. The return policy is only effective if your payment is received within 30 days of invoicing.

10. Invoices for this auction will be sent to online bidders via email and USPS for all other bidders. We do not ship until we receive payment in full. Upon payment of the invoice, your package will be sent to you. Please let us know if you have any special requirements for shipping packages as soon as possible. Shipping and handling fees reflect standard USPS Priority rates, or other applicable shipping service rates, plus $1 to offset the cost of packing materials. We usually ship your lot(s) to you via USPS.

11. Payment: Payment is due in full within 30 days of receipt of invoice. If arranged prior to the closing of the sale, payment may be made in 3 separate payments at 30-day intervals. Payment can be made to 4th Dimension Collectibles, P.O. Box 3411, Ponte Vedra Beach, FL 32004-3411. We accept cash, personal checks, money orders etc. All returned checks are subject to a $25 fee.

12. Sales Tax: All lots shipped to addresses in Florida are subject to the local Florida State Sales Tax Rate unless we have a valid resale certificate on file prior to invoicing.

13. The auctioneer has the final decision on all matters regarding this sale. The terms of this agreement are a binding contract between you the bidder and 4th Dimension Collectibles.

	Lot # 57 - Glass water pitcher. One side shows the "Electrical Building, and the other the "Horticultural Building," both in a "frosted glass" white. The base and bottom of the neck are rimmed in gold. The neck also has a flower design encircling it. The opening at the top has three curved sections. Size: 8.75" x approx 6" diameter at widest point. Condition: There is a small circular area on the underside that has some minor chipping, otherwise excellent. Estimate: $ 150 - $ 200	$ 50
	Lot # 58 - Tall tan mug with handle that "World's Fair Chicago 1893" etched in blue script. There is also a flower design etched in blue. There is a small hole in the top of the handle. Size: 4.75" x 3" diameter. Condition: Very good. Estimate: $ 75 - $ 125	$ 25
	Lot # 59 - Small metal mandolin. The oval head has a painted flower design and says "From Chicago Exposition" with "1893" by the bridge. The four gold metal "strings" are still attached. The handle has a metal thermometer base with measurement lines for temperature attached over the strings, the glass thermometer is missing. There is a hook at top for hanging. This piece was probably once a wall thermometer. Size: 15.5" x 3.75" x 1.5". Condition: Metal is tarnished and rusty in spots. Piece of thermometer missing. Estimate: $ 40 - $ 60	$ 15
	Lot # 60 - Heavy, round gold colored shield/plaque. Embossed in the center of the shield is an image of Columbus with "Christopher Columbus" around this. Circling this are various embossed scenes, with a flag and shield at top. On one side of the shield it says "Hausmann Art Metal of Niagara Falls N.Y." Around the outer rim of the shield it says "'Exhibition of Chicago * His Arrival * Discovery of America 1492 * His Coming Back.'" At bottom right it says "Tonetti" in cursive script followed by "Paris 1892." The back is rough metal with the front piece appearing to attach to it at the edge. You can see the images and lettering from the front in reverse on the back. There are two hooks for hanging. This piece has a wire attached from one hook to the other to make hanging easier. Size: 16.5" diameter. Condition: Excellent. Estimate: $ 250 - $ 350	$ 75

	Lot # 61 - Glass oil lamp. The shade or chimney has a band of frosted glass in white and blue with the image of "Columbus" and a flower design. The section that holds the oil is also decorated with frosted glass in blue and white and has a flower design and the image of a ship encircled by a knotted rope. The base is clear glass. On the knob that raises the wick it says "Pat' April 1877.". Size: 16.75" x 4.5" diameter at bottom, 2.5" diameter at top. Condition: Dirty. Several small chips in the bottom of the clear glass base. Frosted glass is faded and worn away in some areas. Estimate: $ 400 - $ 600	$ 100
	Lot # 62 - Wooden cane with curved handle. The cane is made to look like it is covered with bark, and within this it says "Chicago World's Fair. 1893.". Size: 35.5". Condition: A little worn in areas, and the tip of the curved handle is chipped, otherwise good. Estimate: $ 75 - $ 100	$ 20
	Lot # 63 - Novelty item shaped like an obelisk and covered with paper. The paper shows rectangular boxes that each have different subject matter in them. Some boxes give information about a specific state and some on a specific President. The bottom has a partial sticker that once said "Souvenir Columbian Exposition." The bottom also has 4 somewhat pointed feet that it rests on. There are three small metal hooks at the top. This is a very rare toy. Size: 22.75" x 3.75" x 3.75". Condition: The paper is stained, worn and missing in a few spots. The label on the bottom that is marked "Souvenir Columbian Exposition" is damaged. Estimate: $ 300 - $ 500	$ 100

	Lot # 64 - White throw pillow with ruffled trim. The front of the pillow shows various buildings from the fair in red and tan. Within this it says "World's Fair Chicago 1893." The back shows five small checkerboard patterns in red and white that make up a square. The ruffled trim is stitched ... Size: approx 18" x 21". Condition: There is some creasing on the front and a few small stains. There are also some tears on the back within the connecting areas of the checkerboard patterns. Estimate: $ 25 - $ 35	$ 10
	Lot # 65 - Mustard Glass small bowl. The inside of the bowl is yellow in color and shows the "Administration Building" in brown in the center. The outer part of the bowl is white. It looks as if the outer edge was at one time rimmed in gold, but most of the gold has worn away. Size: 3.75" diameter. Condition: The gold has worn away from the edge and the yellow area looks dirty and worn, but there are no chips. Estimate: $ 75 - $ 125	$ 25
	Lot # 66 - Square box, possibly for a handkerchief. The top of the box shows a color image of "Machinery Hall." Around this is a cream and brown diamond pattern that looks bamboo like in appearance, placed over cardboard. Around the sides of the box is striped pattern made out of the same material. The back of the box is stamped "Made in Japan" and says "1893 hankie box" in pencil. The inside cover has a paper attached that says "Seigel-Cooper & Co. Chicago Ills. The World's Biggest Shop.". Size: 8.25" x 8.25". Condition: Good -Some of the decorative pattern around the edges is missing and the image is slightly stained. There is a small tear in the picture on the top. Estimate: $ 35 - $ 50	$ 15
	Lot # 67 - Wooden clock with only hour hand. Shows "Columbus" at top and "Anno 1492" at bottom. The clock is open on both sides showing the gears, which are also made of wood, with metal attachments. There are wooden weights attached to cords at bottom. This clock comes in its original box. The lid of the box shows a picture of the clock inside and says "One Columbus Clock" and gives directions on how to hang. The lettering is faded but it also once said Bostwick & Burgess Mfg. Co Norwalk, Ohio. The box is hard to find. Size: Clock- 14.5" (without string) x 5.5" x 5". Box- 6.25" x 6.5" x 15". Condition: The box is very worn but the clock is in excellent condition and appears to have never been taken out of the box. Estimate: $ 200 - $ 300	$ 75
	Lot # 68 - Key holder. The key holder is made from an animal horn, which is painted with a flower design and "World's Fair Chicago 1893." There are two rings at top that a pale peach ribbon is attached to for hanging. On the bottom there are five small holes that once most likely had an attachment with a hook (you can see faint circular marks surrounding the holes), to hang the keys from. Size: 2.25" at open end x 12" long by 3" at open end. Condition: Missing the key hook attachments, there is a little wear to the lettering but otherwise Extremely Fine. Estimate: $ 50 - $ 100	$ 18

	Lot # 69 - Clear glass vase with four ruby "flash" glass ovals on each side of the lower part of the vase. Each oval says something different; one says "World's Fair," one "August 5th 1893," one "Annie Foster" and one "From Lizzie" all in cursive script. The top of the vase has a scalloped pattern. Size: 6.5" x 3.5". Condition: Good-some scratches in the ruby glass. Estimate: $ 50 - $ 75	$ 20
	Lot # 70 - Ruby "flash" glass sugar bowl complete with lid. The bottom of the bowl and the top of the lid are both clear glass with a "thumbprint" design. The bottom rim of the lid is ruby. On the front in the ruby glass it says "World's Fair 1893" in cursive script. The back says "Mother" in cursive script. Size: 4.5" x 3.5" diameter with lid. Condition: Good - chips on lid bottom and spikes on edge and a few small scratches in the ruby glass. Estimate: $ 60 - $ 80	$ 25
	Lot # 71 - Game from the fair. On the front under glass is an image of the Ferris Wheel from the Fair. The center of the wheel says "The Ferris Wheel Puzzle." The object is to get one of the little balls in the game in each "seat" of the Ferris Wheel using the knob on the back. The back of the piece says "Patented in The United States. Patent applied for all over the world. The Columbia Manufacturing Co., 112 & 114 S. Ectaw Street, Baltimore, MD." The back also says prizes will be given on May 31, 1894 to "those doing the puzzle in the shortest space of time." Size: 5" x 5". Condition: Very worn. The paper surrounding the edges is missing in many spots and the glass can be lifted off of the game in one area. It does still work. There is no box cover. Estimate: $ 60 - $ 80	$ 25
	Lot # 72 - String pull top in the colors of red, green and yellow. On one side there is an image of Columbus in the center that says "Worlds Columbian Exposition Chicago 1893" around it. On the outer edge are various images including the "Santa Maria" and the "Landing of Columbus." On the other side there are "punched" stars in the center and around these it says "Pat. Appl-d For U.S.A." Around this it says "Columbian Novelty Co. Rochester N.Y." On the outer edge are images of children playing various instruments. There is a small metal loop in the center of each side in which a double string comes out of. There are four man-made holes on each side. Size: 3.25" diameter. Condition: The metal is a little worn and slightly tarnished, and there is a small dent by one of the holes. Estimate: $ 75 - $ 100	$ 25
	Lot # 73 - Pop-up book in full color. The front of the book says "World's Columbian Exposition Chicago 1893" and shows a bird's eye view of the fair. This is the second book in a set-there is a Roman numeral "II" in the top right corner. The bottom of the cover identifies the buildings that pop up when the book is opened. The cover also says "Patented June 26, 1883" and "Registered Printed in Germany." The book opens at bottom to one page of pop-up buildings that are numbered and correspond to their names on the front cover. Size: 10.25" x 12.25". Condition: Poor- the cover is discolored and almost completely separated from the book. There is also a small area missing on the right side were a rodent eat part of the cardboard. All of the	$ 12 buildings are present but none of them pop up. Estimate: $ 35 - $ 50

	Lot # 74 - Black wooden box. The lid shows a full color image of the "Electrical Building" and also says "Made in Germany." The front has a diamond shaped piece of metal where you would insert a key. The key is short and straight with no teeth, with a round head. There are no other markings. The inside is unlined wood. Size: 3.75" x 11.75" x 8.25". Condition: There are several minor scratches and a few worn areas on the box but otherwise very good. The lock does not work. Estimate: $ 50 - $ 75	$ 20
	Lot # 75 - Round jewelry box with full color image of a bird's eye view of the fair "Chicago (1893)" under glass on the lid. The glass is then surrounded by a gold colored metal design that is has a clasp attached. The container part of the box is metal and has a raised pattern that surrounds it, that is brown in the center and brown and cream near top and bottom. This has a rim of gold metal at top and bottom, and sits on four round gold feet. The inside of the box is lined in light pink fabric. Size: 2" x 3.25" diameter. Condition: The gold metal is worn in some spots and the design on the container looks worn. The pink lining is a little dirty but no rips or tears. The image under the glass has one spot where the color has worn away. Estimate: $ 100 - $ 150	$ 35
	Lot # 76 - Small ceramic tumbler. The tumbler is gold in color on the outside and white on the inside. On the front there is an area of white and within this it says "World's Fair Chicago 1893" in decorative gold script. The bottom is stamped "Made in Germany." Size: approx. 3.25" x 2.25" diameter. Condition: The gold is wearing off in several places, especially along the top rim. Estimate: $ 75 - $ 125	$ 30
	Lot # 77 - Framed piece of bark, that is in three section. Attached to the bark with small nails is a period note that says "This is a piece of the bark from the big Red Wood Tree that was exhibited at the World's Fair at Chicago in 1893 and now stands in the City Park, Washington, D.C. Presented by Edward Betteridge (?)". This tree was so large that a house was carved out of the inside. The tree trunk house was moved to D.C. after the fair. It was destroyed in the 1930s. The frame is period and made of wood with several tiers of molding. There are hooks and wire at back for hanging. Size: 21.25" x 10.5 x 4". Condition: The frame is very worn, scratched and nicked, with what looks like paint splatters at bottom. The bark appears to be in excellent condition, however, I am not sure if the bark was in one piece originally; it is now in 3 pieces. Estimate: $ 125 - $ 175	$ 25
	Lot # 78 - Silver colored metal padlock on metal link chain. The lock has an image of Columbus and says "1492 World's Fair 1892 Souvenir" around the image. The back says "Pat. Aug 4th '91." The key has a small hole in the bottom with a stamped in star above it, and fits into the bottom of the lock. The lock is attached to the chain with gold colored clasps at the top and bottom. At the top, the gold clasp is attached to a small piece that fits into the top of the lock. When the key is inserted in the bottom, this piece will pop out, opening the chain. This item must be very rare because I have never seen this lock before. Size: 10" with chain. Lock- 2.25" x 1.25". Condition: Lock, chain, and key are in good condition. They all have some minor surface wear and/or scratches. There are a few spots of rust. Estimate: $ 100 - $ 200	$ 30

	Lot # 79 - Compass in brass case. The top of the case says "The Columbus Needle" "The Simplest and Most Complete Guide to the World's Fair Chicago-1893 Pat. Applied For Souvenir." The inside has the compass set against an aerial map of the Fair, in which locations are numbered. There is an index in the lid of the case that identifies the buildings that correspond with the numbers. Size: approx 2" diameter. Condition: The metal is tarnished and the lid has many dents in it.
